MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION OF THE BRITISH DENTAL ASSOCIATION

1. The name of the Association is the "British Dental Association".
2. The registered office of the Association is to be in England.
3. The objects for which the Association is established are:
 - (1) The promotion of Dental and the allied sciences, and the maintenance of the honour and the interests of the Dental Profession (which expression in this Memorandum includes every branch of the Dental Profession).
 - (2) To encourage and promote the improvement of the health, and particularly the dental health, of the public.
 - (3) To provide a range of advisory, educational and support services for members.
 - (4) To encourage and promote the study of Dentistry and its allied sciences and with a view thereto to provide for the delivery of lectures and the holding of classes, study circles and other similar projects and to establish scholarships, grants, rewards and other benefactions, and for such purpose to grant or lend such sums of money on such terms out of the funds of the Association to such individuals, associations or institutions, incorporated or not incorporated, with objects similar to those of the Association, as may from time to time be determined.
 - (5) To maintain the spirit and provisions of the Dentists Act 1984 and any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof by such lawful means as may be necessary and to promote excellence and just and honourable practice in the conduct of the profession.
 - (6) To promote hold and encourage the promotion and holding of meetings of members of the Association and of the Dental Profession generally throughout the world.
 - (7) To diffuse amongst its members information on all matters affecting the Dental Profession and to print, publish, issue and circulate such papers, periodicals, books, circulars and other literary undertakings as may seem conducive to any of these objects.
 - (8) To establish, form and maintain a library and collection or museum of instruments, equipment, models, designs, drawings, and other articles of interest in connection with the Dental Profession.
 - (9) To give the legislature and public bodies and other facilities of conferring with and ascertaining the views of persons engaged in the Dental Profession as regards matters directly or indirectly affecting that profession.
 - (10) To originate and promote improvements in the law affecting the Dental Profession and to support or oppose alterations therein, and to effect improvements in administration, and for the purposes aforesaid to petition Parliament and take such other steps and proceedings as may be deemed expedient.

- (11) To represent the Dental Profession in its relations and negotiations and to confer with Departments of State, bodies set up by Departments of State, local and other public authorities, bodies or persons in regard to all matters affecting the Dental Profession and generally to watch over and protect the interests of persons engaged in that profession.
- (12) To establish, subsidise, promote, co-operate with, receive into union, become a member of, act as or appoint trustees, agents or delegates for, control, superintend, lend monetary assistance to or otherwise assist any associations or institutions incorporated or not incorporated, with objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Association and the application of whose income and property is restricted in the same manner as is the application of the income and property of the Association under the provisions of this Memorandum of Association.
- (13) To establish, undertake, superintend, administer and contribute to any charitable or benevolent fund from whence may be made donations or advances to deserving persons who are or have been engaged in the Dental Profession or the dependants or connections of any such persons; and to contribute or otherwise assist any charitable or benevolent institution or undertaking.
- (14) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of association funds trusts and schemes calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Association or of any association received into union with the Association or the dependants or connections of any such employee or ex-employee and to pay pensions, annuities or gratuities to any such person.
- (15) To admit any persons (whether eligible or not eligible for membership) to be affiliate or honorary members of the Association on such terms and to confer on them such rights and privileges as may seem expedient.
- (16) To undertake and execute any trusts which may seem to the Association conducive to any of its objects.
- (17) To purchase, take, lease, exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property or any rights or privileges necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Association, and to construct, alter and maintain any buildings required for the purposes of the Association.
- (18) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property of the Association.
- (19) To borrow any moneys required for the purposes of the Association upon such terms and on such scrutinies as may be determined.
- (20) To invest the moneys of the Association not immediately required upon such securities or otherwise in such manner as may from time to time be determined.
- (21) To do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

4. The income and property of the Association, from whatever source derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects of the Association, as set forth in this Memorandum of Association, and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend or bonus, or otherwise however, by way of profit to the Members of the Association. Provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment in good faith of remuneration to any officers or servants of the Association, or to any Member of the Association, or other person, in return for any services actually rendered to the Association.

5. The fourth paragraph of this Memorandum is a condition on which a licence is granted by the Board of Trade to the Association, in pursuance of Section 23 of the Companies Act 1867.
6. If any Member of the Association pays or receives any dividend, bonus, or other profit, in contravention of the terms of the fourth paragraph of this Memorandum, his liability shall be unlimited.
7. Every Member of the Association undertakes to contribute to the assets of the Association in the event of the same being wound up during the time that person is a Member, or within one year afterwards, for payments of the debts and liabilities of the Association contracted before the time at which that person ceases to be a Member, and the costs, charges and expenses of winding up the same, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributors amongst themselves, such amount as may be required, not exceeding the sum of one pound and five pence, or in case of the Member's liability becoming unlimited, such other amount as may be required, in pursuance of the last preceding paragraph of this Memorandum.
8. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Association there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the Members of the Association, but shall be given or transferred to some other institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the Association, to be determined by the Members of the Association at or before the time of dissolution, or in default thereof such property shall be given to some charitable object.
9. We, the several persons whose names and addresses are subscribed to this Memorandum are desirous of being formed into an Association, in pursuance of this Memorandum of the Association.

PART 1: INTERPRETATION

- 1 In these Articles of Association (where not repugnant to the context) the words and expressions following have the meanings hereinafter assigned to them respectively:

“Articles” means the regulations contained in these Articles with such (if any) modifications as may from time to time be made therein.

“The Association” means the British Dental Association.

“Branch” and “Section” mean respectively a Branch and Section constituted as hereinafter provided.

“The By-laws” means the By-laws of the Association for the time being in force, and made available by the Principal Executive Committee on the Association’s website

The “Chief Executive” means the officer employed to oversee the day to day running of the BDA.

“The Dentists Acts” means the Dentists Act 1984 or any modification or reenactment thereof for the time being in force.

“The Dentists Register” means the Dentists Register kept pursuant to the Dentists Acts.

“Existing” means existing at the time when these Articles came into operation.

“Extraordinary General Meeting” has the meaning assigned to it by Article 26.

“Extraordinary resolution” means a resolution passed by the same majority as is required to pass a Special Resolution at a general meeting of which not less than 21 days’ notice, specifying the intention to propose the resolution as an extraordinary resolution, has been duly given.

“Directors” means the senior staff who are appointed at the Director grade

“The Journal” means the Journal to be published as thereinafter provided.

“Presidential Meeting” means the meeting of the Association at which the President is installed.

“Present” includes, where the word describes the attendance of a person at a meeting, the participation of such a person upon the request of the Chair of the meeting by means of a teleconferencing or video conferencing link

“Professional Group” means a Professional Group constituted as hereinafter provided.

“Primary Postal Address” means the address indicated by a member as either their principal residence or their principal place of work. Each member shall be required to choose one of these as their geographic locator within the United Kingdom for the purposes of candidacy and election.

‘the Journal’ is the British Dental Journal

“The Principal Executive Committee” means the Principal Executive Committee hereinafter mentioned.

“The Seal” means the Common Seal of the Association.

“Standing Committee” means a standing committee of the Principal Executive Committee as provided for by these Articles.

“The United Kingdom” means Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands.

“Working Group” means a Working Group of the Principal Executive Committee constituted as hereinafter provided.

“Year” refers to a calendar year.

Words and expressions defined in the statutes shall have the same meanings in these Articles.

Words importing the singular number include the plural and vice versa.

Words importing the masculine gender include the feminine gender.

PART 2: MEMBERSHIP

2. The number of Members of the Association is unlimited.

CLASSES OF MEMBERSHIP

Ordinary Membership

3. Any person, whether the person is actually practising dentistry or not, who fulfils the following criteria, shall be eligible as an Ordinary Member of the Association:
 1. is of good character, and
 2. is a person registered in the Dentists Register or who is, or has been, legally entitled to be registered, and who is not disqualified by these Articles, and
 3. provided that the person's name has not been erased or suspended from the Dentists Register, or from the Medical Register, and that suspension or interim suspension by order of the Preliminary Proceedings Committees or the Health Committees of these Councils do not disqualify a person under Article 3.2

Honorary Membership

- 4 (A) Members of the Dental profession and of scientific eminence; or persons distinguished in medical or allied sciences; or persons who may have rendered distinguished service to the Association, or to the promotion of dental and any allied sciences; or who will further or advance the interests of the Association, may, on the recommendation of the Honours and Awards Committee, be elected Honorary Members by the Principal Executive Committee
- 4 (B) An Honorary Member shall have none of the liabilities of Members as regards subscriptions and shall not be entitled to any vote, but shall have the privilege of attending the Annual General Meeting and such other privileges as may be conferred upon the Honorary Member by the Articles. Any person who is eligible for ordinary membership of the Association in accordance with Article 3 and who is elected an Honorary Member shall have all the rights and privileges of ordinary membership

Life Membership

- 5 (A) Any Ordinary Member of the Association who has been an Ordinary Member continuously for twenty-five years, or has been (1) an Ordinary Member continuously for ten years and (2) has ceased to practise dentistry, and (3) holds no paid dental employment, shall be eligible for election by the Principal Executive Committee, on the recommendation of the Honours and Awards Committee as a Life Member of the Association
- 5 (B) A Life Member shall have all the rights and privileges of membership but shall not be liable to pay any subscriptions to the Association or to any Branch. A Life Member shall be eligible to be elected or appointed to any office in the Association. The honour is marked by the presentation of a scroll at a General Meeting or other occasion determined by the Principal Executive Committee.

Temporary Membership

- 6 (A) Any member of any Dental Association, which is approved for the purpose by the Principal Executive Committee, who is temporarily but not ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom may, on application, and at the discretion of the Principal Executive Committee, become a Temporary Member of the Association
- 6 (B) the period of temporary membership shall coincide with the period of the Temporary Member's residence in the United Kingdom
- 6 (C) A Temporary Member shall be liable to pay such subscription to the Association as shall from time to time be determined by the Principal Executive Committee but shall not be entitled to hold office in or vote at any general meeting of the Association, or to hold office in, or vote at any meeting of a Branch or Section of the Association, or to vote in any elections of the Association.

Affiliate Membership

- 7 (A) The Principal Executive Committee may, by special resolution, admit any person (whether the person is eligible for membership or not) to be an Affiliate Member of the Association
- 7 (B) The Principal Executive Committee will from time to time determine the eligibility of persons or classes of persons to become Affiliate Members; the mode and conditions of admission to Affiliate membership; the rights and privileges of Affiliate membership; and the rate or rates of subscription
- 7 (C) an Affiliate Member shall not be entitled to hold office in or vote at any general meeting of the Association, or to hold office in, or vote at any meeting of a Branch or Section of the Association, or to vote in any elections of the Association
- 7 (D) no persons or classes of persons established as ancillary dental workers under the Dentists Act 1984, shall be eligible for Affiliate membership of the Association.

Student Membership

- 8 (A) Any dental undergraduate student at a dental school who is ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom is eligible as a Student Member of the Association
- 8 (B) A Student Member shall be liable to pay such subscription to the Association as shall from time to time be determined by the Principal Executive Committee, but a Student Member shall not be entitled to hold office in or vote at any general meeting of the Association, or to hold office in, or vote at any meeting of a Branch or Section of the Association, or to vote in any elections of the Association, except for any forum or standing committee approved by the Principal Executive Committee for the purposes of representation for Student members
- 8 (C) A Student Member shall cease to be a Student Member upon graduation.

Other classes of Membership

9. The Principal Executive Committee may from time to time determine any other class of membership.

RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERSHIP

10. Members of the Association shall be entitled to the rights and privileges, and subject to the liabilities, set out or provided for in these Articles, and, subject to these provisions, the Principal Executive Committee shall from time to time determine the services and benefits available to each class of membership. The rights of members are personal and shall not be transferable or transmissible.

DURATION OF MEMBERSHIP

11. The existing members of the Association shall be deemed to consist of all the persons who shall be admitted as members, in such manner and upon such conditions as may from time to time be determined by the Principal Executive Committee. Every member shall remain a member until such member ceases to be a member in accordance with the provisions of these Articles. The Principal Executive Committee may refuse a candidate for membership of the Association.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

- 12 (A) The subscription payable by members of the Association shall be determined by the Principal Executive Committee for all the classes of membership, and such categories and/or tiers of membership, and /or benefits or concessions, as referred to in Article 12 (B)
- 12 (B) The Principal Executive Committee may fix different rates of subscriptions for tiers of Ordinary Members and the other classes of membership, or otherwise differentiate between members as to the subscriptions payable by them and concessions or additional benefits payable to them
- 12 (C) Tiers and categories of membership will be regularly reviewed by the Principal Executive Committee, and any amendments approved by the Principal Executive Committee may be implemented with six months' notice.

- 13 (A) Subscriptions shall be paid when due, in such manner and to such officer of the Association or any Branch or Section as the Principal Executive Committee may from time to time determine
- 13 (B) The first year's subscriptions of a Member shall be due on or immediately after the Member's admittance to membership or the Member's admittance to a different tier or category of membership (as the case may be). The subscription for that year shall be for the full year or such lesser proportion of the appropriate annual subscription as the Principal Executive Committee may from time to time determine and thereafter subscriptions shall be payable at such intervals as the Principal Executive Committee may from time to time determine.
- 14 (A) The subscription shall (subject to the restrictions contained in these Articles in regard to Honorary, Temporary, Affiliate and Student members or other restrictions contained in these Articles) confer all the ordinary privileges of membership of the Association made available by the Association to Ordinary Members in relation to trade union membership and otherwise as voting members of the Association, and such other privileges determined by the Principal Executive Committee, during the period commencing no later than the date on which the subscription is received by the Association and terminating with the expiry of the period covered by the subscription.
- 14 (B) The subscription of an Ordinary Member of the Association shall entitle the Member to the ordinary privileges of membership of a Branch without further payment (subject to the Member's compliance with the rules of the Branch) and no other subscription (except voluntary subscriptions) shall be demanded or payable by any Member of the Association.
- 14 (C) If a Member has failed to pay the subscription due in the period determined by the Principal Executive Committee the Member shall be deemed to be in arrears in respect of the subscription due until the Member pays the same or until the subscription period expires (whichever is first) and so long as the Member is in arrears, the Member shall have no voting rights or entitlement to publications issued to members as a whole.

CESSER OF MEMBERSHIP

15. A Member of the Association shall cease to be a Member:

1. On the death of the Member

2. If the Member fails to pay the subscription due within such period as the Principal Executive Committee may from time to time determine
3. If the Member resigns from membership of the Association. For a resignation to be effective it must be made either (1) in writing or (2) by electronic communication or (3) orally. The resignation shall be effective upon receipt of any of the aforesaid communications by the Chief Executive, or a BDA member of staff designated by the Chief Executive to act on the Chief Executive's behalf for this purpose, and subject to any terms and conditions of membership
4. If the Member's name is erased or suspended from the Dentists Register by order of the Fitness to Practise Panel of the General Dental Council or from the Medical Register by order of the Fitness to Practise Panel of the General Medical Council. However, a Member so suspended may make application to the Principal Executive Committee for Affiliate Membership during the suspension period
5. If (being an Honorary, Temporary, Affiliate or Student Member) the Member ceases from any cause whatsoever to possess any qualification which was a condition of that membership, or if the Member shall fail to conform to any of the conditions for the continuation of that membership.

SANCTIONS ON MEMBERSHIP, INCLUDING TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 16 (A) Any Member whose conduct shall, upon inquiry by the Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee, be deemed to be detrimental to the honour and interest of the dental profession; or contrary to expectations of professional behaviour expressed in any code of conduct or standards of service and conduct published by the Association, including issues relating to conflict of interest; or likely to bring the profession into disrepute; or to be prejudicial to the interests of the Association, may be subject to any of the sanctions specified in Article 53 (D) (1-5) or Article 54 (D) (1-5)

The Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee may upon the representation of the:

1. Chair of the Principal Executive Committee or
2. Chair of a Country Council or
3. Chair of a Standing Committee of the Principal Executive Committee or
4. Chief Executive or

5. a Member, who is dissatisfied with the response to a complaint by any of those listed in (1) to (4) regarding the conduct of another Member or
6. a Member wishing to refer the Member's own conduct for a ruling by the Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee, subject to a matter regarding a conflict of interest or declaration of interest being considered, where relevant, by the Principal Executive Committee or Audit Committee in the first instance institute an inquiry into the conduct of such Member.

- 16 (B) If any Member shall be convicted in a Court of Justice in the United Kingdom of any offence punishable by imprisonment with or without option of a fine or if any such member shall be convicted in a Court of Justice outside the United Kingdom of any offence which would, in the United Kingdom, be punishable by imprisonment with or without option of a fine, the Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee may if they think fit hold an inquiry into the nature and the circumstances of the case. The Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee shall not retry the case, but shall accept the conviction as being a proper conviction, and shall consider whether or not the offence justifies a sanction in accordance with Article 53 (D) (1-5)
- 16 (C) Not less than twenty one days' written notice shall be given to the Member implicated of the meeting at which an inquiry by the Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee is to be held and of the substance of the allegations made, and the Member shall be at liberty, if the Member so desires, to attend the meeting for the purpose of explaining the Member's conduct, or submit written representations prior to the meeting as to why the Member should not be subject to any sanction within the powers of the committee. The Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee shall however be at liberty to proceed with the inquiry if the Member does not attend at the time and place appointed for the purpose, or if it has not received written submissions from the Member
- 16 (D) If at any inquiry it is established that in relation to the fact alleged the Member has been found by the Professional Conduct Committee of the General Dental Council or the Professional Conduct Committee of the General Medical Council to be guilty of serious professional misconduct, the Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee shall accept the finding as being a proper finding and shall without further inquiry find that the conduct of the Member is of a kind specified in Article 16 (A).
- 16 (E) The Member shall be advised of the right to appeal the decision of the Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee, within twenty-one days of the date at which the Member is notified of the decision, to the Ethics and Professional Conduct Appeals Committee; the sanction imposed by the decision of the Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee shall apply in the interim.

16 (F) The Ethics and Professional Conduct Appeals Committee shall meet within twenty-one days of receipt of the Member's appeal and shall allow the member to attend before them and to make any statement the Member considers to be relevant, or to submit written representations as to why the sanction decided by the Ethics and Professional Conduct Committee should not be applied. The Committee shall however be at liberty to proceed if the Member does not attend at the time and place appointed for the purpose, or if it has not received written submissions from the Member

16 (G) In any inquiry held pursuant to paragraph (C) and paragraph (G), the Member (whether the Member is present or not) may be assisted in the presentation of the Member's case by some other person provided that no practising barrister or solicitor shall be entitled to conduct the case for the Member. The procedure at any such inquiry or proceedings shall, subject to this Article, be determined by the Chair of the meeting at which the inquiry is held, or the proceedings take place.

RE - ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

17. Any person who ceases to be a Member of the Association may be re-admitted to membership on such terms and subject to such conditions as may from time to time be determined by the Principal Executive Committee.

PART 3: BRANCHES, SECTIONS AND PROFESSIONAL GROUPS

BRANCHES AND SECTIONS

18. For the better attainment of the objects of the Association, Members shall be formed into separate local bodies called 'Branches'. Subject to PEC approval Sections may be formed within the areas of Branches.

19. A Branch shall comprise such body of members as the Principal Executive Committee shall from time to time recognise and declare to be a Branch, and a Section shall be such body of members as the Principal Executive Committee shall from time to time recognise and declare to be a Section.

20. Each Branch and Section shall have a local area to be fixed or amended from time to time by the Principal Executive Committee.
21. A Member who practises in one local area but wishes to be a Member of a Branch constituted in relation to another local area may transfer membership to the Member's Branch of choice. The Member will thereafter enjoy voting rights and privileges of membership in the Member's Branch of choice and shall be eligible to be elected or appointed to office only in relation to the Member's Branch of choice (though note Article 59 (C) in regard to elections to the Country Councils). The membership by such a Member of a Section within the Member's Branch of choice shall be determined by the Principal Executive Committee.
22. Every Branch or Section shall elect a Secretary from amongst the members of the Branch or Section. The name, address and contact details of the person elected Secretary shall be communicated to the Association.

PROFESSIONAL GROUPS

23. The Principal Executive Committee may from time to time declare or disband any body or number of Members whom they consider to be members of the dental profession in a particular sphere of practice or field of activity to be a Professional Group and may make such provisions as they deem expedient for the identification and recognition of any Professional Group.

RULES OF BRANCHES, SECTIONS AND PROFESSIONAL GROUPS

24. Subject to the Articles of Association, all Branches, Sections and Professional Groups shall be constituted, managed and governed and shall have such powers, rights and privileges, and shall be under such obligations as shall be determined by the Principal Executive Committee. The Principal Executive Committee may provide for contributions, grants and subscriptions out of the general funds of the Association to Branches, Sections and Professional Groups; and may impose on the Members of any Branch, Section or Professional Group such obligations towards the Association and the Branch, Section or Professional Group as may seem expedient; and may empower any Branch, Section or Professional Group to make any Rules in relation to their affairs and to vary or repeal any such Rules; but the Rules of every Branch, Section or Professional Group shall be subject to the directions of the Principal Executive Committee and subject thereto, the Rules of every Section shall be approved by the Branch, to which it belongs. The Principal Executive Committee may at any time vary or repeal any Rules hereby authorised.

PART 4: GENERAL MEETINGS OF THE ASSOCIATION

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

- 25 (A) The Association shall in every year hold a General Meeting (called an Annual General Meeting), at such time and place as may from time to time be determined by the Association at the preceding Annual General Meeting, and if no time or place is so determined, it shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by the Principal Executive Committee. An Annual General Meeting shall be specified as such in the notices calling it. Not more than fifteen months shall be allowed to elapse between any two Annual General Meetings. All other General Meetings shall be called Extraordinary General Meetings.
- 25 (B) The business of an Annual General Meeting shall include the appointment of the auditors and the fixing of their remuneration, consideration of the annual accounts and balance sheets, and the ordinary Reports of the Principal Executive Committee
- 25 (C) The Principal Executive Committee shall arrange the content and order of business of an Annual General Meeting.
- 25 (D) The Principal Executive Committee may arrange to provide to members such papers as are necessary for the Annual General meeting electronically.

EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETINGS

- 26 (A) The Principal Executive Committee may whenever it thinks fit or upon a requisition made in writing of five per cent of the voting membership of the Association convene an Extraordinary General Meeting
- 26 (B) A requisition must state the objects of the meeting and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the registered office of the Association, and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists
- 26 (C) If the Principal Executive Committee does not within twenty-one days from the date of the deposit of a requisition proceed duly to convene an Extraordinary General Meeting, the requisitionists or any of them representing more than one half of the total voting rights of all of them, may themselves convene an Extraordinary General Meeting for the object specified in the requisition, but any meeting so convened shall not be held after the expiration of three months from the said date.

NOTICES OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- 27 (A) Twenty-one days' notice in writing at the least of every Annual General Meeting and of every meeting convened to pass a special resolution, and fourteen days' notice in writing at the least of every other General Meeting (excluding in every case the day upon which the notice is given or deemed to be given and the day appointed for the meeting) specifying the arrangements for the meeting including the day and hour of the meeting
- 27 (B) The accidental omission to send notices of a meeting to or the non-receipt of such notice by any person entitled to receive the notice shall not invalidate the proceedings at such meeting.

CHAIR

28. The Chair of the Principal Executive Committee or (failing the Chair of the Principal Executive Committee) the Deputy Chair of the Principal Executive Committee, or, if neither of them shall be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed or if neither of them is willing to act, a Chair appointed by the meeting, shall preside at all General Meetings of the Association.

BUSINESS OF GENERAL MEETINGS

29. All business that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting and also all business that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting, with the exception of the consideration of the Accounts, Balance Sheets and the ordinary Reports of the Principal Executive Committee, the appointment and remuneration of the Auditors and the other routine business of the Association, shall be deemed special business.

QUORUM

- 30 (A) No business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless a quorum is present. Save as provided by paragraph (B) of this Article, a quorum at a General Meeting shall be fifty members present or by proxy.
- 30 (B) If a quorum is not present within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Members, shall be dissolved.

PARTICIPATION AT DIFFERENT PLACES AND BY ELECTRONIC MEANS

- 31 (A) in the case of any general meeting, and notwithstanding the place at which the Chair of the meeting shall preside as specified in the notice for the meeting, the Principal Executive Committee may make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation by electronic means allowing persons not present together at the same place to attend, speak and vote at the meeting
- 31 (B) the voting members or proxies at the place or places at which persons are participating via electronic means shall be counted in the quorum for, and be entitled to vote at, the general meeting in question, and that meeting shall be duly constituted and its proceedings valid if the Chair of the meeting is satisfied that appropriate facilities are available to ensure voting members can participate in the business for which the meeting has been convened.

ADJOURNEMENT OF MEETINGS

32. The Chair may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. It shall not be necessary to give any notice of adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

VOTING AT GENERAL MEETINGS

- 33 (A) At a general meeting, unless a poll is demanded by the Chair or by at least five members present and entitled to vote, a declaration by the Chair that a resolution, on a show of hands, has been carried, or carried by a particular majority, or lost or not carried by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect has been recorded in the minutes, shall be sufficient evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour or against any such resolution
- 33 (B) No poll shall be demanded on the election of a Chair or on a question of adjournment
- 33 (C) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn

- 33 (D) If a poll is demanded by the Chair or five members present and who are entitled to vote, the same shall be taken at such time and place and in such manner (with or without the use of voting papers) and either at once or after an interval of adjournment or otherwise, as the Chair directs, and the result of such poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the Association in General Meeting
- 33 (E) The demand for a poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting for the transaction of any business other than the question on which the poll has been decided
- 33 (F) Every Member shall have one vote and no more, but no person who is a Temporary, Affiliate, Student Member or members located outside the United Kingdom shall have a vote, and no Honorary Member shall have a vote unless the member is for the time being entitled to Ordinary Membership of the Association
- 33 (G) No member shall be entitled to a vote at any meeting unless all money, which is due from the Member at the time of such meeting, has been paid
- 33 (H) Voting in elections and ballots shall be conducted in accordance with trade union legislation in force from time to time. Voting on a referendum in accordance with Article 34 shall be conducted in accordance with that Article and voting on all other matters arising at a general meeting shall be decided in accordance with these Articles
- 33 (I) In the case of an equality of votes at any general meeting, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chair of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.

IMPLEMENTATION OF RESOLUTIONS

- 34 (A) The Principal Executive Committee shall, at its next meeting, consider the resolutions passed at a General Meeting, except those referred to in Paragraph H of this Article
- 34 (B) The resolutions to be considered shall remain suspended until the conclusion of such meeting of the Principal Executive Committee
- 34 (C) If the Principal Executive Committee at such meeting, is of the opinion that each such resolution properly represents the wishes of the Members of the Association as a whole, it shall take no action in connection with such resolution and the same shall come into operation at the conclusion of the meeting
- 34 (D) The Principal Executive Committee shall determine on a referendum on the ground that a resolution does not properly represent the wishes of the Association
- 34 (E) If the Principal Executive Committee at such meeting approves of any such resolution passed at a General Meeting, or does not determine on a Referendum, the resolution shall come into operation at the conclusion of the meeting.
- 34 (F) If at such meeting the Principal Executive Committee determines on a Referendum, the Principal Executive Committee shall publish the fact in the earliest practicable issue of the Journal and shall refer the Resolution, accompanied by such observations as the Principal

Executive Committee may think desirable, to the consideration of all the Members of the Association

- 34 (G) Where any resolution is referred to a referendum it shall not be valid and binding as a decision of the Association unless and until it is approved by a majority of the aggregate votes of Members of the Association. Such votes shall be given by voting papers and the form of the voting papers and the manner in which they are to be filled up and returned by Members shall be determined by the Principal Executive Committee
- 34 (H) The foregoing provisions as to a Referendum shall not apply to a Special Resolution or to an Extraordinary Resolution, or to any Resolution relating solely to the procedure or to any business transaction at an Annual General Meeting which is not special business as defined in Article 29, or to any resolution which under the provisions of the Articles or of the Statutes must be passed by the Association in General Meeting.

MINUTES

- 35 (A) The Association shall keep minutes of all proceedings of general meetings to be entered in books kept for the purpose
- 35 (B) The books containing the minutes of proceedings of general meetings of the Association shall be kept at the registered office of the Association and shall be open to the inspection of any member without charge during the normal hours of business
- 35 (C) Any member shall be entitled to be sent a copy any such minutes, within seven days of making a request.

PART 5: PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

POWERS OF THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 36 (A) The overall control and direction of the policy and affairs of the Association shall be vested in a Principal Executive Committee, consisting of 15 members elected in accordance with Articles 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, and 42
- 36 (B) The Principal Executive Committee is the Association's board of directors, and as such it holds all requisite statutory, commercial and common law duties and responsibilities
- 36 (C) The Principal Executive Committee is also the body responsible for the lawful conduct of the Association as a recognised trade union for the purposes of the Trade Union Act 1984 and any amending legislation.

36 (D) The Principal Executive Committee shall exercise the necessary powers to fulfil its responsibilities within the remit described in Articles 36 (B) and (C), and these powers and responsibilities shall include:

- ensuring the legal compliance of the Association in regard to all of its activities
- agreeing the strategy and operational plans of the Association, and setting the Association's annual budget
- ensuring value for money in the Association's activities
- holding the Chief Executive and senior management team to account for the progress and implementation of strategic and operational objectives
- the determination of policy
- the management of risk
- ensuring effective financial stewardship of the Association, and holding the Chief Executive and Finance Director to account in regard to the Association's financial planning and financial controls
- borrowing or raising sums of money and to mortgage or charge the undertaking property and assets of the Association or any part thereof and to issue debentures, debenture stock and other securities whether outright or as security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Association
- preparing the Association's accounts for audit and submitting the audited accounts to the Association's Annual General Meeting
- agree the per capita grant payable to Branches
- to make arrangements for the election of members, the cessation of membership, the compulsory termination of membership, the readmission to membership and the creation of new categories of membership
- to approve changes to Branch/Professional Group boundaries and/or membership
- to receive and consider reports from the country councils, and the standing committees of the Principal Executive Committee
- nominate the President of the Association to the Annual General Meeting, upon the recommendation of the Honours and Awards Committee
- to maintain or cause to be maintained proper minutes and records of all meetings of the Principal Executive Committee, and all Association Committees

36 (E) The Principal Executive Committee shall also appoint a Scientific Adviser for the Association

36 (F) Nothing done by the Association in General Meeting shall invalidate any prior act of the Principal Executive Committee or standing committee.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

37 (A) The Principal Executive Committee shall consist of fifteen members elected by members of the Association as follows: one member elected from each of the English regions described in Article 38 (A), one member from Scotland, one member from Wales, one member from Northern Ireland and three members elected on a UK wide ballot .

37 (B) The Returning Officer for the elections to the Principal Executive Committee shall be the Chief Executive of the Association or a person appointed by the Chief Executive

37 (C) Any issues of interpretation that arise from these Articles in regard to the election process for the Principal Executive Committee shall be determined by the Returning Officer

38 (A) England shall be divided into the following regions for the purposes of elections to the Principal Executive Committee, returning one member from each region:

- Eastern
- East Midlands
- Greater London
- Northern
- North West
- South East
- South West
- West Midlands
- Yorkshire and Humberside

The precise boundaries of each country and English region shall be determined by the Returning Officer with reference to prevailing postcodes.

Members are entitled to vote in the country or English region as defined by their primary postal address and in the election for the three UK wide positions and they should be required to complete voting papers based on a preferential voting system for these purposes (subject to Article 40)

38 (B) Candidates for election may stand in their primary postal address country or English region, or in the UK wide election, or both

- 38 (C) Candidates for election to the Principal Executive Committee must have been an Ordinary Member of the Association, or else an Honorary Member entitled to ordinary membership, continuously for a period of not less than twelve months at the date the Returning Officer invites nomination of candidates
- 38 (D) Temporary, student, affiliate members, and members located outside the United Kingdom, are not entitled to vote or stand for election. No Honorary Member is entitled to vote or stand for election unless the Member is for the time being entitled to Ordinary membership of the Association
- 38 (E) Members of the executive of any standing committee as defined in Article 55, or any other standing committee established by the Principal Executive Committee, must resign their office if elected to the Principal Executive Committee
- 38 (F) Any elected or appointed member of a country council and United Kingdom Council must resign as a member of the country council and United Kingdom council if elected to the Principal Executive Committee, though the member will be re-appointed as an ex officio and non-voting member of their local country council by virtue of their membership of the Principal Executive Committee.
39. Voting papers shall be delivered or sent to each elector by the Returning Officer. The voting papers shall contain the names of those candidates standing in the elector's country or English region, and the names of those candidates standing in the UK-wide election all of whom have been nominated (each by three members entitled to vote in the elections for the Principal Executive Committee) on or before an appointed day of which not less than 28 days' notice has been given in the British Dental Journal.
- 40 (A) The votes for country and regional seats will be counted first, and these places on the Principal Executive Committee allocated, before proceeding to the count for the UK wide places
- 40 (B) Provided that if the number of candidates for election in any country or English region or in the UK wide election is of equal to or less than the number of persons to be elected, the use of voting papers shall not be required, and such candidate or candidates shall be deemed to have been elected unopposed by the Returning Officer.
- 40 (C) In the event that the number of candidates for election to the UK wide seats on the Principal Executive Committee is equal to or less than the number of persons to be elected, and the candidates include a candidate or candidates who are also standing in a country or regional seat that is contested, Article 40 (A) shall take precedence and the count for the country or regional seat shall proceed first in order to determine whether the said candidates fill a country or regional seat or a UK seat. If the said candidates are elected to the country or regional seats, then their names shall be withdrawn as candidates in the UK wide ballot.

41. Elections to the Principal Executive Committee shall be conducted each year, to accommodate non concurrent three year terms of office amongst its members, with five members standing down at each election; such number must include three members elected from the regions in England, one elected from another country of the United Kingdom, and one elected on a United Kingdom wide ballot. Elections shall be completed no earlier than the beginning of October and no later than the end of December in each year. Each member of the Principal Executive Committee shall be elected for a three year term, and shall be entitled to stand for re-election at the end of their term.
42. If any member of the Principal Executive Committee shall die, resign, move their primary postal address from the country or region in which they were elected or otherwise cease to be a member of the Principal Executive Committee before the expiration of their term of office, or if a vacancy remains following an election, then the Returning Officer shall organise an election for a replacement, or an election to fill the vacancy, unless the remainder of the said term of office on the date the replacement could reasonably assume office is 6 months or less from its expiration.

INTERIM PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 43 (A) An Interim Principal Executive Committee consisting of the members of the United Kingdom Council elected from the branches (or sections if in Wales) shall be formed and assume the responsibilities of the Principal Executive Committee in the following circumstances:
 - the Principal Executive Committee is dissolved by resolution at an Annual or Extraordinary General Meeting
 - all the members of the Principal Executive Committee resign
 - membership of the Principal Executive Committee falls below the quorum prescribed by Article 50 (B)
- 43 (B) The quorum of the Interim Principal Executive Committee shall be such number representing at least two thirds of the members of the Interim Principal Executive Committee (and those not eligible to vote in relation to a particular matter shall not count towards such quorum).

- 43 (C) In the event that an Interim Principal Executive Committee is formed because membership of the Principal Executive Committee has fallen below the quorum, the remaining members of the Principal Executive Committee shall be members of the Interim Principal Executive Committee, and shall resume membership of the quorate Principal Executive Committee once elections are complete
- 43 (D) The Chair of the Interim Principal Executive Committee shall be the rotational Chair of the United Kingdom Council at the time, though this will be subject to approval by the Interim Principal Executive Committee
- 43 (E) The Interim Principal Executive Committee may at its discretion form a smaller Business Committee consisting of some of their number to deal with business in greater detail and make recommendations for decision
- 43 (F) The Returning Officer shall make arrangements for fresh elections as soon as practicably possible to address any of the circumstances described in Article 43 (A)
- 43 (G) In the event that a new Principal Executive Committee assumes office, following the dissolution or resignation of its predecessor, the Returning Officer shall allocate terms of office by lot for each member in order to achieve a rotation in which five members stand down each year, and to accommodate three-year terms of office for each member. A 'lot' for these purposes is defined as an object, for example a slip of paper or a straw, drawn or thrown out from among a number in order to reach a decision by chance. The first elections should be held in the following year in which the new Principal Executive Committee is constituted, and no later than December of that year
- 43 (H) In the event that the Returning Officer is organising elections in order to restore the quorum on the Principal Executive Committee, the successful candidates shall inherit the existing rotational timetable of the vacant seats they fill, unless the remainder of the term of office in any instance is six months or less from its expiration, in which case the successful candidate shall serve the unexpired term and then commence a fresh three-year term until the next rotational election.

ELECTION OF CHAIR AND DEPUTY CHAIR OF THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 44 (A) The Principal Executive Committee shall elect a Chair and Deputy Chair from amongst its number for such period and on such terms as the Principal Executive Committee shall think fit subject always to a maximum term of office of three years duration for each position, in accordance with a procedure administered by the Chief Executive, and subject to Article 45 (A)

44 (B) The members so elected Chair or Deputy Chair of the Principal Executive Committee may stand for re-election for a further three-year term, but no member may serve as Chair or Deputy Chair for more than 2 consecutive three year terms

TERMINATION OF THE APPOINTMENT OF SENIOR OFFICERS OF THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

45 (A) To the extent a member of the Principal Executive Committee is elected to a specific office of the Principal Executive Committee (including, without limitation, the Chair, Deputy Chair, Chair of the Education, Ethics, and the Dental Team Working Group) any member of the Principal Executive Committee may propose the termination of any such appointment to such specific office and, subject to such proposal being seconded by another member of the Principal Executive Committee, such office shall be vacated immediately if such a motion is carried with the support of two thirds of the Principal Executive Committee present at a quorate meeting and the Principal Executive Committee shall then require the Chief Executive to administer such procedures to elect a replacement to such office as the Principal Executive Committee shall approve

45 (B) For the purposes of subsequent election, any term of specific office which is terminated before the end of the anticipated term in accordance with Article 45 (A) shall be deemed to have been a full term of office

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP OF THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

46 (A) If a member of the Principal Executive Committee fails to act in accordance with their statutory duties as a Director (or otherwise in the best interests of the Association) (or a complaint is made against any member of the Principal Executive Committee) and such matter is not resolved by a personal approach of the Chief Executive (who shall be entitled to take such advice as they see fit) to that member of the Principal Executive Committee, the matter will be referred to the Chair who shall consult the other members of the Principal Executive Committee.

46 (B) The Principal Executive Committee shall conduct such investigations as are reasonable and it thinks fit and may by a majority of vote of two thirds of its members, propose a resolution. Provided the Principal Executive Committee shall have advised and consulted with the United Kingdom Council on the matter concerned beforehand, the resolution proposed by the Principal Executive Committee may include the early termination of the appointment of the relevant member of the Principal Executive Committee. In the event that the resolution of the Principal Executive Committee is such early termination, the member of the Principal Executive Committee shall cease to hold office with effect from the date of the passed resolution

46 (C) A by election shall be organised to fill the vacancy caused by the termination, consistent with the provisions of Article 42.

OTHER CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING VACATION OF OFFICE

47 (A) The office of a Member of the Principal Executive Committee (or the United Kingdom Council if the Member concerned is a member of the Interim Principal Executive Committee in accordance with Article 43) shall be vacated (1) If the Member becomes bankrupt or makes any arrangement or composition with creditors generally; (2) If the Member becomes of unsound mind; (3) If by notice in writing to the Association the Member resigns the office; (3) If the Member becomes prohibited from holding office by any Court order made under the Statutes; (4) If the Member is removed from office by a resolution duly passed pursuant to the Statutes; (5) If the Member ceases to be a member of the Principal Executive Committee by virtue of any provision of the Articles

47 (B) The office of a member of any other committee appointed pursuant to these Articles shall be vacated if the member ceases from any cause to be a member of the Association.

47 (C) Any term of office designated in these Articles of Association or By Laws as being attached to a specific office of the Principal Executive Committee, or country council or the United Kingdom Council (including, without limitation, the offices of Chair and Deputy Chair) shall be automatically terminated if the office holder fails in a re-election process to the relevant body.

NO DISQUALIFICATION BY AGE

48. Any person may be appointed or elected as a member of the Principal Executive Committee or any other Association Committee whatever the person's age, and no Member shall be required to vacate office by reason of age.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

49 (A) No Member of the Principal Executive Committee shall be disqualified by the Member's office from contracting with the Association, either as vendor, purchaser, or otherwise, nor shall any contract or arrangement entered into by or on behalf of the Principal Executive Committee in which any Member thereof is in any way interested be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Member of the Principal Executive Committee who contracts or is interested in this way be liable, because the Member is a member of the Principal Executive Committee, to account to the Association for any profit which the Member may realise from this contract or arrangement, but it shall be the duty of any Member of the Principal Executive Committee who is in any way, whether directly or indirectly, interested in a contract or arrangement or proposed contract or arrangement with the Association or any interest the Member may have in any company, organisation or association with which the Association may potentially be in competition or in conflict, to declare at the earliest opportunity the nature of the Member's interest in writing to the Chair of the Principal Executive Committee or the Chief Executive.

- 49 (B) The required declaration shall be considered at a meeting of the Principal Executive Committee at which the question of entering into the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration, or, if the Member of the Principal Executive Committee was not, at the date of that meeting, interested in the proposed contract or arrangement, then at the next meeting of the Principal Executive Committee held after the Member became so interested and subsequently on every occasion where the interest is relevant to the Association's discussions. A list of all interests disclosed is to be circulated to all Members of the Principal Executive Committee at the beginning of each year in a triennium.
- 49 (C) In a case where the Member of the Principal Executive Committee becomes interested in a contract or arrangement after it is made, the declaration shall be made at the first meeting of the Principal Executive Committee held after the Member of the Principal Executive Committee acquired the interest
- 49 (D) For the purposes of this Article, a general notice given to the Members of the Principal Executive Committee by a Member of the Principal Executive Committee that the Member is a member of a specified company or firm, and is to be regarded as interested in any contract or arrangement which may, after the date of the Notice, be made with the company or firm, shall be deemed to be a sufficient declaration of interest in relation to any contract or arrangement so made
- 49 (E) A Member of the Principal Executive Committee shall not vote in respect of any contract or arrangement in which the Member is so interested, and if the Member shall so vote the Member's vote shall not be counted
- 49 (F) Where a contract or arrangement is continuing, a declaration of interest shall be repeated at the first meeting of the Principal Executive Committee after each election

- 49 (G) If a Member of the Principal Executive Committee is in doubt whether an interest should be declared, the Member should seek the advice of the Chair of the Principal Executive Committee who will consult with the Chief Executive. Should the Member not agree with the advice given, the Member may take the matter to the Audit Committee. The Chair of the Principal Executive Committee, the Chair of any Committee of the Association and the Chief Executive may also take a case to the Audit Committee for advice. In deciding whether or not such a declaration be required regard shall be had to the expectations of professional behaviour expressed in any code of conduct or standards of service and conduct published by the Association
- 49 (H) If another Member of the Association has reasonable grounds to believe that a relevant interest has not been declared, and a personal approach to the Member concerned has not resolved the matter, the Member with such reasonable grounds for belief should draw it to the attention of the Principal Executive Committee and the Audit Committee, or the Member may refer the matter directly to the Audit Committee
- 49 (I) These disclosure provisions shall apply equally to any interest which a Member of the Principal Executive Committee may have in any company, organisation or association with which the Association may be in competition or conflict, or may potentially be in competition or conflict (irrespective of whether such a company, organisation or association is in a contractual relationship with the Association), appointments, shareholdings, consultancies and ad hoc projects (paid or unpaid) including positions held within the National Health Service
- 49 (J) These disclosure provisions shall apply to any member of the country councils and United Kingdom Council, of any Standing Committee of the Principal Executive Committee or working group.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PRINCIPAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

- 50 (A) The Principal Executive Committee shall meet not less than four times every year and on such other occasions as it shall deem necessary and expedient for the work of the Association
- 50 (B) the quorum for a meeting of the Principal Executive Committee shall be 9 members
- 50 (C) In the event that neither the Chair of the Principal Executive Committee or Deputy is present within fifteen minutes from the scheduled start of a meeting of the Principal Executive Committee, or neither is willing or able to act, then those present shall elect from amongst their number a person to be the Chair of the scheduled meeting by simple majority

50 (D) A resolution, in writing, signed by seventy-five per cent of the voting Members of the Principal Executive Committee, shall be a special resolution, and shall be as valid and effectual as if it had been passed by a meeting duly called and constituted.

50 (E) in the case of any meeting of the Principal Executive Committee, or its Sub Committees, and notwithstanding the place at which the Chair of the meeting shall preside, the Chair may make arrangements for simultaneous attendance and participation by electronic means allowing persons not present together at the same place to attend, speak and vote at the meeting.
